CLOSING EXERCISES.

Preparations Being Made for High School

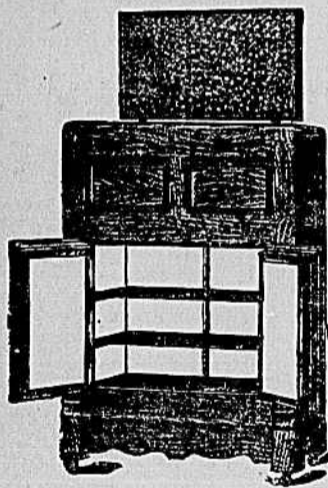

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 24.—The closing exercises of the Green Bay High School will be held May 6, and a good entertainment will be arranged. On the following day a picnic will be given on the grounds, and there will be a school picnic. The school has made great progress since its establishment here, and in being well patronized. Prof. Lucke, with his able assistants, has made a very creditable showing the past season. Consideration of the smaller schools has proven a wonderful success in this instance, and all patrons are co-operating to make it a still further success.

Plaintiff Gets Verdict.

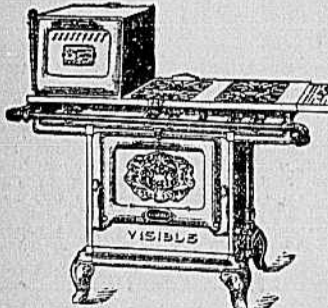

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 24.—In the Superior Court this morning in the case of W. T. Powell, of Caswell county, who was suing the Southern Railway for $5,000 damages for injuries sustained while in the service of the company, the jury gave a verdict of $1,800. The case of Cora Reeves, administratrix of Joe Reeves, a Southern Railway brakeman, killed by a train in the shifting yard at Roma two years ago, against the Southern Railway for $15,000 damages, is now in progress.

HIGH PRESSURE DAYS.

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the pressure is on the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge, we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the organs, builds up the whole system and fits men and women for these high pressure days.

POLICEMAN HELPS AN OLD, GRAY CAT

For His Act of Mercy He Has Been Awarded a Diploma of Honor.

WALTER C. ROSENDALE.

NEW YORK, April 24.—It was only a cat—just a miserable starveling of the streets and alleys—but its life was sufficiently precious to temporarily halt the traffic in one of New York's pulsating arteries of commerce. Not one person in a hundred—perhaps a thousand—would have paused for the scraggly, unattractive animal except to kick it out of the way, for, after all, it was only an old gray cat. Not so, however, with Walter C. Rosendale, who is only a policeman. There was nothing spectacular about Rosendale's act, but the feelings which prompted him to go to the rescue of the starveling and the heroism which he displayed have brought to him a diploma of honor, the highest tribute paid by the society which awarded it, and the plaudits of half a million people who care for dumb animals. It was not so much the physical bravery, but the moral one—the bravery which is as strong against possible discharge and the jeers of fellowmen—that Rosendale displayed.

The incident passed practically unnoticed at the corner of Broadway and Tenth Streets, where the policeman was on duty. The old, gray cat had attempted to cross the street, and was dodging about beneath the feet of horses and the wheels of heavy wagons, which momentarily threatened to crush out its life. It was then that the policeman sought to check the traffic of the choked thoroughfare long enough to permit the bewildered little animal to make its way across in safety. A driver of a heavy wagon neglected to obey the officer's signal to stop, and apparently deliberately ran over the cat, fatally injuring it.

"Oh, what's the difference, it was only a cat," remarked the driver with an air of indifference. The policeman, however, who was placed under arrest by Rosendale, who, after humanely putting the animal out of its misery, took him to the station house. The judge before whom the prisoner was arraigned could see no harm in the killing of only a cat. The prisoner was promptly discharged, and the officer who made the arrest was sternly rebuked for his act of mercy. The incident came to the attention of William O. Sullivan, president of the American Humane Association, and at his request the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has presented to Patrolman Rosendale its diploma of honor in recognition of his humanity and courage in doing a deed of mercy under adverse circumstances—a deed that fundamentally involved the principles of kindness, mercy and justice.

BARREL OF BRANDY FOUND.

Officers Find Contraband Goods in Mountain Ravine.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., April 24.—Sheriff W. L. Greaver, of Johnson county, Tenn., in view of the fact that whiskey has been peddled in the mountain districts of his county for several months, has determined to break up the practice, and is now searching for the guilty parties. In the third district of that county he and his deputies discovered, secreted in a mountain ravine a barrel containing forty-five gallons of apple brandy. The sheriff learned that a companion barrel was in hiding in the same section of the mountains, but as yet has been unable to locate it. The brandy is thought to have been brought to the county from Wilkes county, N. C.

HARD FIGHT IS ON.

Administration Being Vigorously Op-

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., April 24.—Bristol, Tenn., is now in the midst of the excitement of a municipal contest. An election will be held on the next Tuesday in May, when a Mayor and three members of the City Board will be chosen. Mayor J. A. Dickey is a candidate for re-election, while Aldermen John C. Anderson, Anson King and A. C. Harklerend, who term expires in twelve years, Dr. L. H. Gammon, formerly of Saltville, Va., but for ten years a resident of Bristol, is heading the citizens' ticket for Mayor. The aldermanic candidates on this ticket are: J. W. Umstad, Clyde Reser and Dr. N. S. Peters.

Hood-Williams.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 24.—At the residence of N. L. Grantham, last night at 8 o'clock, Miss Emma Casey Williams, of Hartford, Conn., and James A. Hood of Augusta, Ga., were married. Rev. N. L. Richardson, pastor of Spring Garden Street Methodist Church, officiating. Miss Williams is a daughter of Mrs. Ellen Williams, of Rentonville. Mr. Hood is secretary and treasurer of a large furniture establishment in Augusta and is a prominent business man of that city. He is a son of Mrs. Betsy Hood, of Goldsboro.

Will Ratify Charter.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., April 24.—The stockholders of the Lynchburg Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday night to ratify the charter granted recently by the State Corporation Commission and for the purposes of completing the organization. A high class secretary is to be employed for full time.

Lindy-Vogel.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 24.—There was an interesting marriage here last night, when Lewis Lindy and Miss Augusta Vogel were married. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's uncle, B. M. Weiss, Rabbi G. Mendelsohn officiating.
